

CIVILIZED

Addicts have the luxury of chasing
a high they once
experienced.
Imagine chasing
a high that
doesn't exist.

If you need
someone to
lookup to put
a mirror on
the ceiling.

Show no interest and
be interested
even less.

A fist to the face is more effective than a
fist in the air.

The appeal
makeup has.

The experiment
worked. Turns out he does have a brain.

In the past
many went
to war to get
free. Today
taking a knee
is a stance.

Heh man you forgot your knife.

The mental battle
between good
and bad ended
a long time ago.
The remaining
war is about
the bad
getting worse.

If humans
wanted to learn
how not to be
savages they
could observe
the behaviour
of any other
animal.

The great thing
about being
close to the end
is caring less
about things that
never mattered
to begin with.

Serial killers
never go after
people that
deserve to be
murdered.

Instead of
aimlessly
shooting at
others kill yourself. Stop
being a burden
on life.

Civilization
has always
been endless
bloodshed to
live on top of the dead.

Needing a savior is the same as needing a
master.

Democracy exists
because the
dictators say
it does.

Organizations are
not infiltrated.
The front door
is left open.

Know nothing
but protest
everything.

The only
time life had
any value
was when
everything
was free.

All the colours
run away from
black but will
never be
accepted
as white.

Legal vs illegal
acts depend
on the criminals
making the laws.
